PAULINE SULLIVAN

Pauline is seldom seen in our class because of numerous study periods. Her interests range from Women's styles, to Patty Brooks. She plans on attending Maritime Secretarial School.

BASIL TONE

Basil who is quiet in most classes always manages to get in trouble when he isn't doing anything. He likes hockey and plans to join the R.C.M.P.

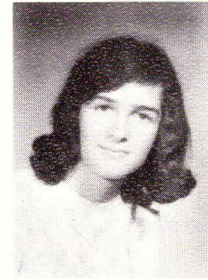

BRIAN VanSICKLE

Brian is usually quiet in class but likes to laugh at funny jokes. He likes fishing and hunting. His future is undecided.

11G

BRENDA BEAVER

Because she is small and can dart about without being seen, Brenda is a great asset to our class. She's a popular gal, and without her we wouldn't have half the fun. She plans to make nursing her career and she plans to charm the patients.

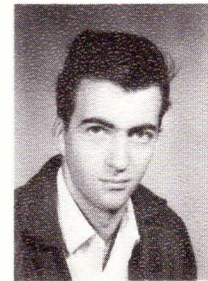

JOHN BEVERIDGE

John hails from P.E.I. and is a welcome addition to B.C. Silver. He never seems to get in trouble for talking but he can always be found adding to the merriment in chemistry class. John plans to return next year to attend university.

JOHN BURKE

Tall, dark and silent describes John, who hails from Herring Cove. John can easily be found driving a '57 Ford. He plans to go to Vocational next year for a course in drafting.

IAN CAMPBELL

Ian is our Red Cross Representative and deserves a medal for giving his reports. He does a good job, however, and we couldn't have chosen a better person for the position. Ian would like to be a teacher.

RONALD COCHRANE

Ronnie appears to be another quiet member of the class. He can still be found with the mischief makers but he also manages to come up with good marks. Ronnie plans to study at the Agricultural College in Truro.

ROBERT COGHLAN

Bob is the fellow to be counted on to give the right (?) answers in Math class. He's prompt with his homework, something unique in 11G.

VILENA DUFF

Vilena is the only girl in our class who is relatively quiet, but if she starts talking, beware; for she doesn't stop easily. Vilena would like to be a teacher and she has the promise of an excellent job in the field.

BARRY DUGGAN

Barry, one of the fun-loving boys of 11G, can out giggle most of the girls in our class. His main interests are hunting and fishing. His future is undecided, but we know he'll succeed in whatever he does.

DOUG ENGRAM

When you think of Doug, you automatically think of chocolate bars as he was the chairman of the bar committee. Doug is very active in Student Council Activities. He hopes to become either a Math teacher or history teacher.

RODERICK FOWLER

Roderick never seems to get into trouble with any teacher, no matter what he does. We'd like to know his secret. Roderick wants to join the army (but at the top). He especially wants to be an officer.

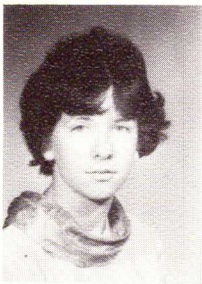

JOHN GINN

John is always in the thick of any trouble in the class. He plans to complete grade 11 and then join the army. Best of luck to John with his chosen career.

ERIC HAYDEN

Eric never causes a class disturbance, but always seems to be in the fun. He's rarely heard answering questions, but really livens up the Economics class when asked how his project is coming along.

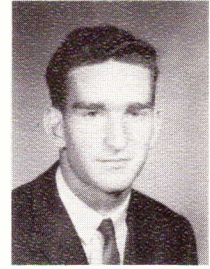

JUDY HENSON

Judy can usually be found behind her text book, but reading is not Judy's only hobby. She is a sport enthusiast and is on the school basketball team.

BRIAN HOLLEY

"Huck" is the soccer hero of 11G and is indispensable to the team. He's also on the hockey team and plays well on that too. His favourite hobby is singing all the latest pop tunes. Brian would like to be an airplane pilot and will probably do a great job "crooning" to all the passengers.

CECIL HOLT

Although he is one of the quiet members of 11G, Cecil is always ready to laugh at jokes told in class. Cecil plans to be an accountant and he's certain to do a great job.

PAUL KENNY

Active and interested, Paul is always ready to join in a discussion or an argument. His speciality is answering questions. Paul has many interests like, stamp collecting, cars, music and girls. He hopes to be an engineering technologist and we wish him the best of luck.

SHARON LILY

Sharon is an outstanding and noisy member of 11G. She always seems to be yelling at one of the boys in our class, and enjoying the noise she makes in doing it. Sharon plans to go to Vocational next year for a secretarial course.

MARY BAKER

Mary, the girl with the budding personality, always knows the answers and has the contagious smile. She plans on being a physiotherapist in the future.

DAVID CREASER

David, a fun-making member of our class, can be seen catching up on some of his sleep during not-so-exciting classes, but always knows the answers when asked. He plans on going to college to be an electronic engineer.

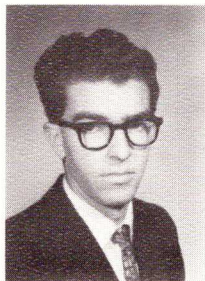

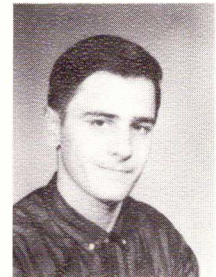

NATHAN CREWE

Nathan is one of the quiet lads from Portuguese Cove, but his silence could be attributed to his interest in all the gossip going on around him. Nathan's main interest is hockey.

DEAN CROFT

Although Dean doesn't take part in activities within the school he takes an avid interest in everything. He is studious but willing to laugh at a sensible joke. We are sure that he will have a bright future even though he has no definite plans.

KARL DASH

Karl is our comedian, who can be sure to keep us laughing. So far his future is undecided, but since he's so good at giving geometry help to the girls, he should try being a teacher.

ALLAN DOYLE

Among Allan's many hobbies are painting, drawing, chess, bowling and discussing pressing issues. Allan is going on to grade 12 and from there he will study to be an architect.

DAVID DRYSDALE

A staunch, liberal, Dave could give an hour lecture for his party any time of the year. He is at his best in history class. David's future will probably be a salesman or a politician.

DEBBY EHLER

Debbie, a hard-working gal of our class, plans on being a nurse after finishing high school. Best of luck to Debbie.

TO THE GRADUATES

Four years you've been here,
Working and slaving,
Sometimes happy,
Sometimes raving.

Some days have been bad,
Some have been good,
Some you've enjoyed;
Others, withstood.

But you've gone through it all --
Successfully, too.
Now it's your turn,
To receive honor due.

We wish you the best,
In your life ahead.
You've passed one big test.
May you pass all the rest.

-- Gordon Neish
