Obituary

Webb, John Frederick "Jack" – 68 of Bedford, passed away February 1, 2017 at the QEII Infirmary. Born in Wolfville, he was the son of the late John Justice and Aafke (Jansma) Webb. Jack was a business professional having owned and operated Mad Man MacKays which he was very proud of. He loved the outdoors, canoeing, camping, cooking and his family pets. He also enjoyed walks on the Bedford waterfront. Jack was an avid traveler having visited many places all over the world. He loved meeting people and left a lasting impression on everyone he met. He is survived by his beloved partner, Kim D'Arcy; sons, Jason, Myles, Ryan; sister, Genevieve (Stephen) Wales; niece, Stephanie (Mike) Tobin as well as his extended family, especially his nieces and nephews on Kim's side. Cremation has taken place under the care of Atlantic Funeral Home, 6552 Bayers Rd. In keeping with Jack's wishes a private family service will take place at a later date. Donations in memory may be made to Canadian Cancer Society or MS Society of Nova Scotia. Online condolences may be made by visiting the Halifax chapel at www.atlanticfuneralhomes.com
